

1001 LA Nights Submissions

Authors, if you wish to submit your short story, essay, poetry or novella/novel (up to 8k words as a teaser) please fill out the form below and be sure to provide all relevant information. We will email you a sharing tip/social media guide to help you get the most exposure for your work. There is no reading fee, and we reserve the right to refuse any and all submissions based on our subjective preferences (That doesn't mean you aren't a good writer, it just may mean you're not a good fit for the podcast, don't self censor though, we like just about everything if it's well written.)

Understand that the piece will be read by L.A. Rivers producer and voice on 1001 LA Nights. Also, by submitting your work in this form you are granting permission for use on 1001 LA Nights Podcast. You retain the rights to your work. You understand that you own no rights to the 1001 LA Nights Podcast production.

All readings are cold, which means they are not audiobook recordings without error, consider this as if a live reading.

(note: this WILL count as publishing, so if you're planning on submitting to competitions, you may wish to reconsider submitting it to the podcast.)
